of the Mysore Dist. and requesting that needful orders might be issued to the authorities concerned. After a perusal of the Notes held by the Matt, the Dy. Commr. issued the needful orders to the Amildars concerned, and reported the matter to Govt. His letter was recorded in Govt. Pro. No. 2284-5 dy 15th March 1911. Enquiry was ~~pleased~~ made as to whether the Matt has previously received Rahadari from the Mysore Govt, and on a perusal of the Rahadaries granted to the Matt on previous occasions, the then under-Secretary Mr. Subrahmanya Ayr recommended that one might be issued in favour of the Parakala Swami Matt. The 1st Member ordered that "it may be issued when necessary again as I believe the tour is over by this time."

The Agent states that the Swami leaves Mysore on the 22nd and reaches Melkote on the 24th, visiting some Temples on his way. A list showing the paraphernalia which
